SARATOGA SPRINGS DEMOCRATS ANNOUNCE ENDORSEMENTS AND SUPPORT #METOO MOVEMENT

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (Aug. 28, 2019) – The Saratoga Springs Democratic Committee (“SSDC”) has announced its endorsements for the 2019 general election.

“The committee’s endorsement process has concluded and is proud to announce that we have endorsed the following candidates: John Franck for Commissioner of Accounts, Patty Morrison for Commissioner of Finance, Meg Kelly for Mayor, Dillon Moran for Commissioner of Public Works and Tara Gaston for County Supervisor,” said Sarah J. Burger, chair of the Saratoga Springs Democratic Committee.

“To have the support of voters in the primary election along with the Saratoga Springs Democratic Committee endorsement, I am deeply humbled. I look forward to working hard and serving all Saratoga Springs citizens as the next Commissioner of Finance,” said Patty Morrison, Democratic nominee for Commissioner of Finance.

The committee also approved a resolution, supported by all endorsed candidates, declaring that survivors of sexual harassment, sexual assault and domestic violence be heard and respected, condemning sexual harassment, sexual abuse and domestic violence and demanding that perpetrators be held accountable.
